As a high school student that absolutely HATES writing, I was on the lookout for a service that could help me improve my skills. I tried a variety of online services, but PaperHelp was by far the most effective. I needed help with my Literary Analysis of The Great Gatsby because there were multiple literary components that I didn't fully understand. After selecting a writer and chatting with him for over 3 hours, he really helped me gain a more thorough understanding of the novel overall, and he taught me how to use examples from literature to defend my point.

EduGuide was created in 2018. According to my little research it has 2.5 from 5 stars rate on Trustpilot. Also I would suggest you to check some reviews here on Reddit, e.g. this link. I prefer to check some old sites. I don't trust newbies. I'd recommend paperhelp (domain was launched in 2008).

How to Write an Essay

Recognize the disagreement and also seriously assess the evidence. In the procedure of composing a scholastic essay, you should always have your major disagreement in mind. While it may be tempting to go off on a tangent about some intriguing side note to your subject, doing so can make your composing less concise.

Know exactly how to write a proper conclusion that sustains your research. One of the most neglected locations of academic essay writing is the verdict.

It should not be a restatement of your introduction or a copy-and-paste of your thesis itself. An appropriate conclusion promptly describes the crucial evidence discussed in the body of an essay as well as directly links it to the thesis to demonstrate how this proof verifies or refutes the major debate of one's research study.

TEN TIPS TO WRITING A GREAT ESSAY

Ready to get writing? Here are my ten best tips for having fun while writing an essay that earns you the top grade!

by Joe Bunting

1 YOUR ESSAY IS JUST A SHORT STORY

Every story is about conflict and change, and the truth is that essays are about conflict and change, too! The difference is that in an essay, the conflict is between different ideas, the change is in the way we should perceive those ideas.

2 ASK YOURSELF, "HOW CAN I HAVE THE MOST FUN WRITING THIS?"

Here's the secret trick: One of the interesting things about your subconscious is that it will answer any question you ask yourself. So whenever you feel unmotivated to write your essay, ask yourself the following question: "How much fun can I have writing this?"

3 ASK YOURSELF, "WHAT SURPRISES ME ABOUT THIS SUBJECT?"

The temptation, when you're writing an essay, is to write what you think your teacher or professor wants to read. Don't do this. Instead, ask yourself, "What do I find interesting about this subject? What surprises me?"

4 OVERWHELMED? JUST WRITE FIVE ORIGINAL SENTENCES.

The standard three-point essay is really made up of just five original sentences, surrounded by supporting paragraphs that back up those five sentences. If you're feeling overwhelmed, just write five sentences.

5 BE SOURCE HEAVY

Instead of putting the main focus on writing well, it instead forces you to research well, which some students find easier.

6 WRITE THE BODY FIRST, THE INTRODUCTION SECOND, AND THE CONCLUSION LAST.

Try writing your introduction last, giving yourself the body of the paper to figure out the main point of your essay.

7 MOST ESSAYS ANSWER THE QUESTION, "WHAT?" GOOD ESSAYS ANSWER THE "WHY?" THE BEST ESSAYS ANSWER THE "HOW?"

If you get stuck trying to make your argument, or you're struggling to reach the required word count, try focusing on the question, "How?"

8 DON'T BE AFRAID TO JUMP AROUND.

Give yourself the freedom to write as if you're circling around your topic rather than making a single, straightforward argument. Then, when you edit, you can make sure everything lines up correctly.

9 SOME WORDS AND PHRASES YOU DON'T WANT TO USE.

- You
- Clichés
- Some
- That
- Things
- To Be verbs

10 IT'S OKAY TO USE WIKIPEDIA, IF...

- Here are two ways you can use Wikipedia in your essay writing:
- Background research
 - Finding sources

Focus on Essay Writing

Essay writing is a process and a product. You need to focus on the process in order to achieve a high quality product.

What is an essay?

The word 'essay' originally meant 'to test' or 'try out'. The academic essay, however, now has the more usual meaning of a short piece of analytical writing on a given subject.

Why write essays?

Essay writing is an essential part of the learning process. It involves:

- time management – meeting the deadline for the essay
- gathering information – appropriate resources and references
- interpreting and analysing the information
- organising and structuring your thoughts and ideas
- planning what you are going to write
- following a set of writing conventions
- communicating those thoughts and ideas clearly on paper
- reviewing the marked essay for future improvement

It's a learning curve. Your essay writing style will develop through practice and you will begin to write more clearly, objectively and persuasively. As your writing improves, your assessment grades should reflect that improvement. Finally, being skilled in writing clearly, objectively and persuasively must be an advantage to you for the rest of your life.

Preparation

Start your preparation early. Read the assignment as soon as you can. Devote about 20 minutes to reading it in detail. Write out the full title, don't be tempted to shorten it as this can be misleading. Highlight or underline key words. Display the title so that you can always see it. It acts as a reminder and it will keep you focused on the question. Keep everything you need together. Before writing, make sure you know the word limit, use A4 paper and re-read the question.

It is necessary to lay out your line of debate in your introduction, presenting your main factors and the basic instructions your essay will certainly take, however do not neglect to maintain something back for the conclusion, too. Yes, you need to summarise your bottom lines, however if you're just duplicating the points you said in your introduction, the essay itself is rendered meaningless.

To return to Of Mice and Men and also Mexican Boy once again, right here is an example of the excellent distinction in between an introduction and also a final thought: In John Steinbeck's Of Mice and Men as well as Mexican Boy, Curley's wife is depicted as an unclear personality. She might be seen either as a vicious, seductive temptress or a lonely lady who is a victim of her culture's perspectives.

This interpretation is supported by Steinbeck's summary of her look, other individuals's mindsets, her dreams, as well as her evident loneliness as well as instability. Generally, it is clear that Curley's wife is a victim and is represented as such throughout the unique, in the descriptions of her appearance, her dreams, other individuals's judgemental perspectives, and her solitude and also insecurities.

She experiences in many ways, she is revealed to insist herself with the control of her femininity a tiny rebellion against the victimisation she experiences. Both refer back constantly to the inquiry and also sum up the essay's bottom lines; however, the conclusion adds something brand-new which has been developed in the major body of the essay as well as yet makes complex the easy summary which is located in the introduction.

Many of the trainees are not aware of the vital actions to create an essay.
